adapted from this recipe

- 8 oz. cream cheese (not whipped, get the block), at room temperature
- 1 cup mayonnaise (full fat)
- 1 1/2 cups jack cheese, shredded
- 1-2 cups diced roasted green chiles (preferably Hatch chiles, peeled and seeded), to taste
- 1 cup Parmesan cheese, grated
- 1 clove garlic, minced

Preheat oven to 350°F. Cream the cream cheese in a bowl. Add the rest of the ingredients and mix until completely blended. Pour into a baking dish (approx 8x8 inches, but there is flexibility – just don't go larger). Bake 35-45 minutes until the top is golden and bubbly. Serve with tortilla chips or crostini.
