4 cups water
4 tsps good loose black tea (I used assam tea)
3 tbsps sugar
2 tsps orange blossom water
ice

Bring the water to a boil. Place the tea in a tea pot or heatproof vessel and pour the hot water over the tea. Let it steep for 3-5 minutes. I tend to steep it for 5 minutes to make it stronger since I like my iced tea with a lot of ice. Strain the tea (discard the tea leaves). Stir in the sugar. Add the orange blossom water to taste. Fill a glass with ice and pour the tea over the ice. Makes 1 quart.
