<http://userealbutter.com/2008/02/04/reuben-sandwich-recipe/>

2 slices of bread (rye or otherwise – nothing flimsy, okay?)

corned beef (slices, shredded, chopped, you pick)

Swiss cheese

sauerkraut, drained

Russian dressing or 1000 Island if you must butter

Butter the outside faces of the bread. Heat a pan over medium flame. Set a slice of bread buttered-side down on the pan. Layer with cheese and then corned beef. Set the other slice on top, buttered-side up. Monitor that the cheese melts at the same rate that the bread turns golden and crisp. Flip the sandwich and brown the other side. Remove from heat. Open the sandwich meat-side. Layer sauerkraut and dressing. Close sandwich, slice. Serve.
