Homemade Vanilla Extract

http://userealbutter.com/2010/04/29/vanilla-extract-recipe/

3 whole vanilla beans per 8 oz. of vodka clean glass bottle or jar 8 oz. cheap vodka

Split the vanilla beans lengthwise and place them in a clean glass bottle or jar. Fill the bottle with vodka. Seal the lid or top tightly and place in a dark and cool location for 2 months. Shake the bottle from time to time.

Source: Apparently the link I had in my post wasn't clue enough for some of you guys! If you go to Saffron.com they have AMAZING deals on bulk vanilla bean purchases including organic vanilla beans. That's where I got mine from.
